COM electives are any courses offered by the School of Communication which are not required for the Com minor (those in section A). If you meet the course pre-requisites you may be eligible to register for the course.

- This minor may not be taken by students majoring in any other area of communication.
- Minors should recognize that registration in some communication courses may be limited to declared majors for whom those courses are required.
- Grade requirement: A minimum grade of “C” is required in all courses to be applied toward a minor.
- The School prohibits students from taking a class more than twice for credit.
- COM 3050/Com 4800 may be taken twice for credit, providing the topics are different.
- Up to 6 credits of COM 4990/COM 3980 may be used as electives in the minor.
