2017-18 PARENTS' MARITAL STATUS VERIFICATION

Answer questions based on the parent's information used on the 2017-18 FAFSA.

If parents are divorced or separated, answer questions about the parent the student lived with more during the past 12 months. If the student did not live with one parent more than the other, give answers about the parent who provided more financial support during the past 12 months or during the most recent year the student actually received support from a parent. If the parent is remarried as of the date the FAFSA was filed, answer questions about the parent and the stepparent.

Parents' marital status at the time the FAFSA was filed: (choose one) then fill in the applicable information below.

___ separated ___ divorced ___ remarried ___ other
