HIGH SCHOOL COMPLETION STATUS

Your application was selected for review in a process called "Verification". We are required to request documentation that you have completed high school.

If you have not already done so, you may need to provide one of the following documents to indicate your high school completion status before we can finalize your financial aid:

- A copy of your high school diploma.
- If you completed secondary education in a foreign country, a copy of the "secondary school leaving certificate" or other similar document.
- A copy of your final official high school transcript that shows the date when the diploma was awarded.
- A state certificate or transcript received after you passed a State-authorized examination that the State recognizes as the equivalent of a high school diploma (GED test, HiSET, TASC, or other State-authorized examination).
- An official academic transcript that indicates that you successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor's degree.
- If you were homeschooled in a state where state law requires students to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschooling (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a copy of that credential.
- If you were homeschooled in a state where state law does not require students to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschooling (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a transcript, or the equivalent, signed by your parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school courses that you completed and includes a statement that you successfully completed a secondary school education in a homeschool setting.

____ I am submitting one of the above documents that indicate high school completion. The documentation is attached to this form.
