Name

Address

Preferred Phone

Fax

E-mail

The contact info provided here will be published in the Call for Papers and on the Congress website.

Number of sessions requested:

List proposed session title(s). All sessions proposed to be sponsored by a given sponsoring organization must be listed on one form. All envisioned events with academic content must be proposed on a Session Proposal Form. Be explicit if a session is a panel discussion, roundtable, workshop, poster session, or performance, rather than a session of papers.

Provide here the intellectual justification for the session(s) proposed, restricting yourself to the space provided. If a large number of sessions is proposed by one sponsoring organization or special circumstances pertain, supplemental documentation may be provided on separate paper, but an overview must be presented here. Please note that a record of attendance at past sessions sponsored by an organization is not considered an intellectual justification for proposed sessions.

Return this form by mail or fax to the Medieval Institute on or before June 1, 2012
