About Dr. Mackie...

Calvin Mackie is an award-winning mentor, an internationally renowned motivational speaker, and a successful entrepreneur. His message as a mentor, speaker, and entrepreneur continues to transcend race, gender, ethnicity, religion, and time. Author A View from the Roof: Lessons for Life and Business, he is also founder of Channel ZerO, an educational and motivational consulting firm. Most recently, Louisiana Governor Kathleen Blanco appointed Mackie to the thirty-three-member board, the Louisiana Recovery Authority (LRA), the guiding agency to lead the state's rebuilding efforts following the catastrophic Hurricanes Katrina and Rita. Possessing instant social, political, cultural, and technical credibility, Mackie was featured prominently on the HBO world premier of Spike Lee's Katrina documentary entitled When the Levees Broke: A Requiem in Four Parts, and has appeared on numerous national and local news shows including the PBS News Hour with Jim Lehrer, and the Tom Joyner Morning Show.
