

Graduate Program Review Appeals Committee

President's Charge

The appeals committee is charged by the president to receive and evaluate appeals made by programs designated for closure in the Graduate Program Review (GPR) report, "Graduate Education at Western Michigan University: Our First Fifty Years and Strategic Priorities for the Future."