

WMU Summer 2004

Drop/Add Policy

The official registration drop/add period extends five business days into a session. In addition, a 24-hour grace period will be provided to students who drop or add a course that meets for the first time on or after the final day of the drop/add period (late fees may apply).

Instructors are not obligated to update students who add a course after the first class meeting. Students are responsible for obtaining the work missed.
