Clinically Informed Care for Transgender People

AndreAs Neumann-Mascis

The Meeting Point
Founder and Developer

Dr. AndreAs Neumann-Mascis is a Licensed Clinical Psychologist with a Master's in Family Counseling and a Ph.D. in Clinical Psychology. Dr. Neumann-Mascis does individual and relationship therapy as well as group therapy, training, and consultation. His areas of specialty include working with trauma and complex PTSD, as well as working with lesbian, gay, queer, and gender variant people. He was a part of developing a women's trauma program for an LGBT agency in San Francisco and has developed specialized trauma curricula for specific populations including homeless and chronically mentally ill people. Dr. Neumann-Mascis is the founder and developer of The Meeting Point: a Multidimensional Center for Healing and Growth in Jamaica Plain, MA, which serves the LGBT community, survivors, and the Disability community. Dr. Neumann-Mascis comes to Western to provide training in working with transgender clients in a clinically competent manner. The training will provide direct opportunities to practice competent care with transgender clients through role plays and case examples. Admission is free, however donations will be accepted and donated to a local LGBT+ charity. If interested, please RSVP to Alison DeLizza at Alison.delizza@wmich.edu.
