

WESTERN MICHIGAN UNIVERSITY

Department of Political Science

Application for the Howard Wolpe Scholarship Award in Political Science for African Studies

Please see eligibility rules and criteria on the next page.

Name:

WIN:

Local Address:

Phone:

Email:

Are you a declared major or minor in the Department of Political Science?

Yes

No

Will you have completed at least 42 hours of college credit before the start of the Spring term?

Yes

No

List below the courses you are currently enrolled in this semester:

Name three WMU professors (along with their departments and email address) who know your work and can comment on your accomplishments:

Write an essay in which you describe your community service activities you have performed and your career plans or goals.

Your application form, essay and names of references are due in the political science department office, 3308 Friedmann Hall, by March 1. Announcement of the award will be made at the end of March. The award will be presented at the Political Science Honors Luncheon in early April.

THE HOWARD WOLPE
SCHOLARSHIP

For African Studies

Eligibility

All applicants must have earned at least 60, but no more than 105 credit hours, credit hours toward an undergraduate degree in political science. Preference will be given to applicants with higher numbers of completed hours in political science. You must be a major or graduate student in political science.

Criteria for Selection

Students must have demonstrated overall academic excellence at Western Michigan University and, in particular, political science and a commitment to use the scholarship support to engage in the study of Africa or selected African nations.

Amount and Duration of Award

The amount of the award is up to $1,000 for the academic year.