ODI Values
Collaborative Community
ODI values collaboration, cooperation, and community. Inclusion is a communitywide initiative that requires the effort and contributions of each member of the Western Michigan University community. We all celebrate in the successes and triumphs of our institution. Therefore, we are all responsible for the community we build at our institution that yields such successes and triumphs. We are intricate parts of a whole system. We each have our roles and duties but we are one university and we’re better together.

Human Flourishing
ODI values human flourishing. When community members flourish in their field of study, academic discipline, and work, our entire university flourishes. Therefore, we work to remove the barriers that impede human flourishing so that all members of our community can maximize their potential.

Accountability and Loyalty
ODI values accountability and loyalty. Each member of this community is accountable and loyal to all other members of this community. This means committing to ensure that adequate resources and accommodations are available to aid in the success of fellow Broncos. This also means giving and receiving the feedback necessary to ensure that needs are being met.

Respecting Difference
ODI values and fosters respect among members of the Western Michigan University community. Community members must seek to understand and respect the diversity of belief systems, worldviews, ideologies, and thoughts of others.

Collaborative Problem-Solving
ODI values collaborative problem-solving as we seek to identify and dismantle institutional barriers that impede human flourishing. We seek not to justify barriers but to ensure equitable access for each member of our communities.

Equipping for Inclusive Excellence
ODI seeks to equip community members with the skills and tools necessary to carry out their work with inclusive excellence. Community members should be not only excellent in what they do, but also inclusive in how they do their work. Therefore, we value providing educational programs and professional development that helps foster the success of our community.

Institutional Diversity Indicators
The Office of Diversity and Inclusion commits to providing leadership in diversity, equity, and inclusion. With that, we recognize that institutional diversity is the work of the entire Western Michigan University community. All members of the university community must be empowered to contribute to building an inclusive campus community if we are to continue our success as a learner centered, globally engaged, discovery driven institution. Demographics are shifting dramatically throughout our nation and our state. According to Damon A. Williams, author of Strategic Diversity Leadership, our collective success as an institution hinges on our ability to ensure access and equity for underrepresented or historically marginalized populations, foster an inclusive and multicultural campus climate, provide offerings for diversity education and professional development, and produce cutting edge diversity research and scholarship.

Our collective success in institutional diversity efforts is measured by the degree to which our university community excels with regard to the following:

1. Enrollment numbers for underrepresented students
2. Retention rates for underrepresented students
3. Graduation rates for underrepresented students
4. Faculty hires from underrepresented groups
5. Underrepresented faculty tenure rates
6. Staff hires from underrepresented groups
7. Underrepresented staff promotion rates
8. Executive hires from underrepresented groups
9. Leaders (faculty, staff, and students) from underrepresented groups at all levels of institution
