Infant Mortality: A third world problem in our own backyard

This seminar will explore how it is that Kalamazoo County, a community rich in resources in a country with the highest medical spending across the globe, can have black infant mortality rates comparable to some developing countries....and what can be done about it.

Friday, February 13
10:30 – 11:30 a.m.
2202 Dunbar Hall