Humanity in Action Fellowship
- Humanity in Action
- HIA brings together international groups of university students and recent graduates to explore national histories of discrimination and resistance, as well as examples of issues affecting different minority groups today. Fellows of the Humanity in Action Fellowship are placed in one of five cities: Amsterdam, Berlin, Copenhagen, Paris or Warsaw. U.S. Fellows participate in a special orientation program at the Council on Foreign Relations and the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum in Washington, DC.
- HIA covers the costs of participation and accommodation during the fellowship programs and the cost of airfare to Washington, DC and provides a modest stipend for meals. Fellows are responsible for financing the cost of round-trip airfare from the United States to their program city. HIA will cover this cost for Fellows with documented need. Fellows should also plan to bring spending money of approximately $750 for food and social activities.
