Diether H. Haenicke Scholarship

The WMU Diether H. Haenicke Scholarship is a merit-based award available to undergraduate international students who meet the selection criteria. The International Admissions and Services office will automatically consider all entering freshmen and transferring students for this scholarship; no additional application is required. First-time students who are eligible for more than one scholarship will be awarded the one of highest value.

Award information:
- $4,000 to $16,000 per year
- Paid in equal amounts in fall and spring semesters (not paid for summer)
- Covers tuition only
- Merit-based
- Renewable
- Available for students who enroll in fall or spring semester immediately after secondary school or transfer from another university

Criteria for selection:
- Undergraduate, degree-seeking international student entering WMU for the first time in the fall or spring semester
- Cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher on a 4.0 scale
- Must be admissible to WMU
- May be awarded up to a total of eight consecutive semesters or until graduation requirements are met, whichever occurs first
