The Graduate College congratulates the following graduate students who are the recipients of the January 2017 Graduate Student Research and Travel Grant awards and wishes them continued success in their research.

The Research Grant Recipients for January 2017

Mohammad Al Qaralleh, Civil and Construction Engineering
Jerico Alcantara, Chemical and Paper Engineering
Gabriel Alves, Biological Sciences
Jesse Anguiano, Interdisciplinary Studies
Elise Drager, Speech, Language and Hearing Sciences
Danielle Dupuis, Geosciences
Meghan Feeman, Music Therapy
Eric Harvey, Psychology
Sarut Jianrattanasawat, Chemistry
Ian Kells, Music Therapy
Alexander Koerber, Geosciences
Anilkumar Kosna, Mechanical and Aerospace Engineering
Sarah Kourtjian, Speech, Language and Hearing Sciences
Alexander Luck, Speech, Language and Hearing Sciences
Danielle Molenaar, Geography
Thomas Ratkoss, Psychology
Emily Sprague, Biological Sciences
Brian Trude, English
Vikram Turkani, Electrical and Computer Engineering

The Travel Grant Recipients for January 2017

Ayaz Akram, Electrical and Computer Engineering
Subodh Bansode, Electrical and Computer Engineering
Maime Butler, Counselor Education and Counseling Psychology
Li Cheng, Public Affairs and Administration
Kelley Current, Chemistry
James Dawson, Educational Leadership, Research and Technology
Mustafa Emil, Geosciences
Thomas Groves, Biological Sciences
Mohammed Hussain, Electrical and Computer Engineering
James MacDonald, Mechanical and Aerospace Engineering
Patrick Marcoux, Counselor Education and Counseling Psychology
Mehdi Mohammadi, Computer Science
Drake Olejniczak, Mathematics
Kristin Roberts, Counselor Education and Counseling Psychology
Jaliya Samarakoon, Chemistry
Erica Schlau, Counselor Education and Counseling Psychology
Paige Schoenborn, Educational Leadership, Research and Technology
Vicki Van Patten, Educational Leadership, Research and Technology