Monday, Feb. 20 at 7 p.m.
Lee Honors College Lounge

This interactive panel discussion will examine the widespread proliferation of fake news stories. How can we avoid getting caught by a fake news story? What impact does fake news have on our democracy? Why does fake news spread so easily? Whose responsibility is it to prevent the spread of fake news? Join us as we step outside of our “filter bubbles" for a lively discussion of fact versus fiction in the media – and how to tell the difference.

Panelists:

Sue Ellen Christian, Professor, School of Communication and Department of Gender and Women's Studies, WMU

Mickey Ciokajlo, Regional News Manager for Grand Rapids, Kalamazoo and Muskegon, MLive Media Group

Peter W. Wielhouwer, Associate Professor of Political Science, Director of the Institute for Government and Politics, WMU

Host:
WMU Libraries
Co-Sponsored By:
Department of Political Science
Lee Honors College
School of Communication

Free and open to the public. Honors students may swipe their Bronco Card for honors college event credit.