WMU Residential Neighborhoods
The NEW Generation of University Living

Campus living is a home away from home experience, which is intentionally designed to support student success.

Provides a seamless campus living experience for residents.

Consists of a combination of living and dining options, academic services, entertainment, athletic and cultural resources.

Services include educational support, health and wellness facilities, and recreational opportunities.

Collegiate living environments facilitate academic success and encourage social development.

Offers safe, vibrant living and learning environments where students can succeed.

Valley Neighborhood

- Six residence halls primarily designed for new and first-year students.
- Fox Hall is the home of the transfer hall.
- Introduces students to campus and connects them with University life.
- Addresses challenges that new students commonly experience.
- Goldsworthy Valley Apartment residents include families, single, graduate, international and non-traditional students.
- Includes three dining options to serve Valley residents.

Center Neighborhood

- Henry Hall houses the Aviation academic learning community.
- New residential facilities are slated to open in fall 2015.
- Focused on the first-year student experience and recruitment.
- Hoekje/Bigelow dining is a popular main campus destination conveniently located in the Bernhard Center.
- The Bernhard Café and Market is on the main level of the student center.
- Food vendors are located in the Bronco Mall.

South Neighborhood

- Includes three residence hall complexes.
- Predominantly sophomore level students and above.
- Features social events designed to bring students together.
• Elmwood apartments are a common choice for families, international students, graduate students and upperclassmen.
• Near recreational and sports facilities, the chemistry building and Waldo Library.
• Bistro3 and Burnham dining service are full-service dining halls.
• A Carryout Express option is available in Draper/Siedschlag.

West Neighborhood

• Consists of the Western View apartments and community center.
• Designed for upperclassmen and graduate students.
• A perfect choice for students who want to transition toward independent living while staying connected to campus