University Counseling and Testing Center

The University Counseling and Testing Center exists to help students deal effectively with concerns and problems that inhibit their academic achievement and personal growth. The International Association of Counseling Services, Inc. accredits the Center. The Center also supports a doctoral training program, which is nationally recognized and accredited by the American Psychological Association with three doctoral level trainees per year. The training program also includes five graduate assistants who provide limited services with supervision.

There are ten faculty members, two administrative members, two support staff members, doctoral level trainees and graduate assistants that provide the following services:

- Individual, couples and group counseling
- Career counseling and assessment
- Group support and psycho-education
- Mental health consultations
- Eating Disorders Treatment Team
- Outreach services
- University 1020 course and courses in other departments
- Testing services (including nationally standardized testing)
- Testing and measurement consultations
- Master’s and doctoral level training

Student Conduct

The Office of Student Conduct (OSC) enhances student learning and personal development by creating an educationally purposeful, disciplined, and caring community. OSC staff educates students and the campus community on student rights and responsibilities. The conduct process is focused on promoting character development, citizenship, civility, and diversity.

- Alleged violations of the student code are resolved through an educationally based process.
- OSC staff collaborates with the Professional Concerns Committee within Faculty Senate to manage and facilitate the academic integrity process. OSC provides training for faculty and student members of the Academic Integrity Hearing panels.
- OSC staff provides training for administrative hearing panel members, the University Appeals Board, and student conduct boards.
