Come enjoy some sandwiches, soup, dessert and more! We will be watching Gattaca. Gattaca Corp. is an aerospace firm in the not-too-distant future, when it has become commonplace to decide the fate of individuals based on DNA analysis. Ethan Hawke’s character was born with a congenital heart condition which would prevent him from living his dream of space travel. However, he concocts a risky plan that will hopefully allow him to go to space anyway.
