Michigan Alliance for Minority Participation (MI-AMP)
Professional Development Application Form

The Michigan Alliance for Minority Participation (MI-AMP), consisting of University of Michigan, Michigan State University, Wayne State University, Western Michigan University (WMU), Mott Community College and Washtenaw Community College, supports professional development of undergraduates who are traditionally underrepresented minorities (URM) in STEM (science, technology, engineering and mathematics), leading to bachelor’s degrees and professional practice or continuation in graduate studies. MI-AMP is funded by a National Science Foundation (NSF) Louis Stokes Alliance for Minority Participation (LSAMP) Phase III award.

STEM faculty and administrator at WMU are encouraged to apply for funding support to take a student who is an underrepresented minority (URM), to attend a professional society meeting or participate in other professional development activities. Use the form below to submit an application for funding support. To be eligible, the professional development activity must be completed by August 31, 2019.
