

Department of Psychology

Brown Bag Discussion

Iser (Willie) DeLeon, Ph.D.
Alumni Achievement Award Recipient 2018
Professor, University of Florida

This brown bag presentation will be a non-directed general discussion. Dr. Iser (Willie) DeLeon is currently a Professor of Psychology at the University of Florida. He has previously been a faculty member at John Hopkins School of Medicine and Director of Research Development at the Kennedy Krieger Institute. Dr. DeLeon has authored or coauthored 80 peer reviewed publications, many of which have appeared in the Journal of Applied Behavior Analysis, one of the most prestigious peer reviewed journals in behavior analysis. A prolific researcher, he has also been the PI or co-PI on nearly 10 million dollars of extramural funded research, often collaborating with other leading behavior analysts in the United States. He is regularly featured as an invited speaker at state and national conferences and his listing of conference presentations spans an amazing array of topics and venues.

Friday, October 5, 2018

3713 Wood

12 p.m.