Criminal Justice curriculum requirements:

- The main goal of the program is to provide the knowledge and skills necessary for students interested in careers in criminal justice. However, students will also be well prepared to pursue professional or graduate work in law, criminology, and other areas such as the Police Academy;
- The following courses are required and must be taken before any of the core requirements:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>WMU courses</th>
<th>Harper courses</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>SOC 2000 or 2100</td>
<td>SOC 101 or 205</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>SOC 2600</td>
<td>LEJ 101</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ENGL 1050</td>
<td>ENG 101 or 102 or 103 (choose one)</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

- Students will have the 9 credits listed above, and then 33 more for the major. Two (2) of those courses will be required research courses. Academic preparation for those 2 courses should include high school algebra or the Harper math course called MTH 103;
- Criminal justice majors must complete a minor for graduation. Please check with advisors listed below for further information about choosing a minor, and about having more courses that you can take at your community college. Check on the WMU TCE to make sure that you are taking transferable courses;
- The following courses may be completed at Harper and will count toward the major course list:

| SOC 3620 | LEJ 210 |

Please check with the WMU Criminology advisor about other criminal justice classes that may transfer from Harper.
General education requirements and other notes:

- Please see the general education program transfer guide;
- All students graduating from the College of Arts & Sciences must meet the world language proficiency by completing two semesters (6-8 hours) of the same foreign language or American Sign Language, or passing WMU’s proficiency by exam. Please contact the College of Arts & Sciences Undergraduate Advising Office at (269) 387-4366 with any questions.
  - If the student’s first language is not English, then the student is exempt from this requirement. Determination of eligibility for this exemption is based on whether the student was required to take the TOEFL test for admission, and can be verified through the WMU departments of Spanish or World Language and Literatures.
- The College of Arts & Sciences requires a critical thinking course, to be chosen from Proficiency 4c. See the general education link given above;
- The College of Arts & Sciences recommends that you apply to WMU at least nine months prior to your anticipated start date;
- For specific information about general education questions please contact the College of Arts & Sciences (A & S) department, listed below;
- For more specific information, contact the criminal justice advisor below.
