Western Michigan University Curriculum Guide for Sustainable Brewing

Program description and notes: The goal of the program is to educate students to be intimately familiar with the technical features of brewing, to appreciate the rich landscape of the industry, and to comprehend and address the environmental challenges faced by the industry in the 21st century.

- ❖ The program was launched in a joint effort between WMU and Kalamazoo Valley Community College in the Fall of 2015.
 - KVCC offers the brewing courses at its Kalamazoo campus.
 - Twenty-six (26) credits and an externship are offered.
- ❖ Students will learn the brewing process in a teaching brewery outfitted with the comprehensive functionality of industry equipment and facilities that incorporate sustainable brewing practices.
- ❖ This program is the first of its kind in the nation.
- ❖ The program includes classroom work that is coupled with firsthand experience in a small-scale teaching brewery going through the process of brewing from “grain to glass.”
- ❖ Students seeking only the brewing certificate can complete that as a stand-alone program at KVCC or complete the certificate as part of an associate degree designed specifically to transfer into the Bachelor of Science program at WMU.
- ❖ Students can also begin their studies at another community college, college, or university, or WMU and complete the KVCC certificate along the way to their bachelor’s program.
