ABOUT MARISA

Marisa has over thirteen years of experience assisting research institutions with compliance and operational improvements. Marisa focuses on organizational transformation in pre-award and post-award administration with a focus on performance measurement and improvement via benchmark and data analysis.

In addition, Marisa has led engagements specifically related to federal regulation compliance and interpretation of federal requirements, developing written and verbal communications to the federal agencies to bring resolution to compliance matters. She has also combined her data analytic and research compliance experience to develop Huron's Research Compliance Data Analytic service offering.
