Eligibility:

- Available for students interested in studying abroad for a semester in countries where English is not the primary official language.

- Must have completed foundational language coursework at WMU by taking at least two semesters of language coursework or the equivalent (via placement exams administered by either the Department of World Languages and Literatures or the Department of Spanish) OR have completed at least two region- or country-specific courses prior to studying abroad. Student must complete one course in a relevant foreign language while abroad.

- Enrollment in a WMU degree-granting program; students who graduate prior to the start of the study abroad program are not eligible for this scholarship.

- U.S. citizens or permanent residents may apply for need-based awards, which are based on demonstrated financial need (FAFSA required) and expected family contribution (EFC) calculation.

- Cumulative GPA requirement: 2.5 for undergraduates, 3.5 for graduate students.

- *Some exceptions to award amounts apply to programs that do not entail air transportation and to those that WMU Study Abroad and the Haenicke Institute have made other financial arrangements and commitments.
