Haenicke Institute for Global Education
Study Abroad Scholarship for
WMU faculty-led programs

Need-based scholarships now available for short-term study abroad programs taught by WMU faculty (Must be minimum 3 credits)*

Deadlines to apply:
Spring: Nov. 15
Summer I: Jan. 31
Summer II: Feb. 28
Fall: July 31

Phone: (269) 387-5890
Fax: (269) 387-0630
study-abroad@wmich.edu

Education, Service, and International Development in Peru participants overlooking Machu Picchu

All students who meet the following requirements and complete the online application will receive funding!*

Eligibility:

- Enrollment in a WMU degree-granting program. Students who will graduate before the start of their selected study abroad course are not eligible for financial assistance.

- Demonstrated financial need. Need calculation is based on demonstrated financial need (FAFSA required) and considers both Pell grant eligibility and expected family contribution (EFC).

- Admission and commitment to a short-term study abroad program taught by WMU faculty.

- *Exceptions apply to programs that do not entail flying and to those that WMU Study Abroad and the Haenicke Institute have made other financial arrangements and commitments.

Application on the WMU Study Abroad website:
www.wmich.edu/studyabroad
The following programs are eligible for the Haenicke Institute for Global Education Study Abroad Scholarship. Please note that all programs may not be represented nor is each program guaranteed to run every year:

SPRING
Advanced Criminology in the Netherlands (Amsterdam, The Hague, and Utrecht, Netherlands)
Community Health and Permaculture in Guatemala (San Lucas, Toliman, Guatemala)
Costa Rica: The Great Green Experiment (Mercedes and San Jose, Costa Rica)
Intercultural Communication and Ethnography in the Dominican Republic (Santo Domingo, DR)
International Perspectives on Aging (Dublin, Belfast, Ballyshannon, Cashel; Ireland)

SUMMER I
Book Arts in Europe (Amsterdam, Netherlands; Antwerp, Belgium; Basel, Switzerland; Cornuda, Florence and Venice, Italy; Mainz, Germany)
Book Arts in Italy (Cornuda, Florence, and Venice, Italy)
Business and Culture in the Dominican Republic (Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic)
Business and Culture in Thailand (Bangkok, Thailand)
Cultural Connections in Senegal: Causes of Globalization and Consequences on Systems (Dakar, Senegal)
Education and Health Across China: From Kindergarten to College (Hohhot, Beijing, Shenyang, China)
Education, Service and International Development in Nepal (Kathmandu, Nepal)
Education, Service, and International Development in Peru (Urubamba, Peru)
German Business and Culture (Berlin and Paderborn, Germany)
Higher Education Leadership in Malaysia and Singapore (Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia; Singapore, Singapore)
Overseas Study on China’s Water Resources (Beijing and Lanzhou, China)
Public Health and Healthcare Systems in South Africa (Port Elizabeth, South Africa)
Religion and Culture in Japan (Kyoto, Nikko, and Tokyo, Japan)
Russian Literature and Culture in St. Petersburg, Russia (St. Petersburg, Russia)
Spanish in Quito, Ecuador (Quito, Ecuador)
Tropical Biology in Belize (Punta Gorda, Belize)
Western Roots of Interior Design: Greek Influence (Athens, Crete and Santorini Islands, Greece)

SUMMER II
Business and Culture in South America: Chile (Santiago, Chile)
Chinese Language and Culture (Beijing, China)
Engineering in China (Chengdu, China)
Focus on Health Care: Summer School Utrecht (Utrecht, Netherlands)
International Perspectives on Aging (Dublin, Belfast, Ballyshannon, Cashel, Ireland)
Lyon Summer Program (Lyon, France)
Media Ethics and Culture in London (London and Bath, United Kingdom)
Tourism Spaces of the United Kingdom (London, United Kingdom)
Universidad de Cantabria (undergraduate) (Santander, Spain)
Universite Laval Summer Program (Quebec City, Canada)

Fall
Business and Culture in Ghana (Accra, Ghana)
Global Perspective on Pediatric Rehabilitation in Dominican Republic (San Pedro de Macoris, DR)
India: Sustainability in the Developing World (Bangalore, India)
Social Justice and Sustainability in India (Bangalore, India)