

Master of Arts Program Requirements – Prior to Fall 2017

I. Major Technology Core (15 hours)

Select 15 hours from the following:

- EDT 5410: Foundations of Instructional Technology Credits: 3 hours
- EDT 6420: Design and Development for Learning Credits: 3 hours
- EDT 6440: Advanced Instructional Technologies Credits: 3 hours
- EDT 6450: Technical and Operational Issues Credits: 3 hours
- EDT 6480: Professional Development in Technology Credits: 3 hours
- EDT 6490: Instructional Technology Leadership Credits: 3 hours

II. Technology Minor Elective Core (9 hours)

Select 9 hours of elective courses related to the technology career goals of the student and approved by an academic advisor, of which 3 credits must be at the 6000-level, and the other 6 credits may be at the 5000- or 6000-level.

III. Research Course (3 hours)

- EMR 5400: Fundamentals of Evaluation, Measurement, and Research Credits: 3 hours
- EDLD 6300: Data-Informed Decision-Making, Research and Evaluation: 3 hours

IV. Culminating Learning Activity (3 hours)

- EDT 7100: Independent Research (with permission from an academic advisor)

Graduate Certificate Program Requirements – Prior to Fall 2017

Major Technology Core (18 hours)

- EDT 5410: Foundations of Instructional Technology Credits: 3 hours
- EDT 6420: Design and Development for Learning Credits: 3 hours
- EDT 6440: Advanced Instructional Technologies Credits: 3 hours
- EDT 6450: Technical and Operational Issues Credits: 3 hours
- EDT 6480: Professional Development in Technology Credits: 3 hours
- EDT 6490: Instructional Technology Leadership Credits: 3 hours