CEHD IDC 2019 Equity Day

In April 2019, the CEHD IDC coordinated the first CEHD Equity Day. Facilitated by CEHD Students, Faculty and Staff, a variety of learning sessions offered attendees the opportunity to learn about relevant topics in equity and inclusion.

To continue on-going exploration, attendees of each session received a book related to the session topic. A set of these books was donated to the WMU Libraries for the Swain Education Library located in Sangren for all to access. Remaining copies of titles distributed to department representatives at the first 2019-2020 CEHD IDC meeting. The goal is to host facilitated book discussions of these titles throughout 2019-2020.

The first scheduled book discussion is about the book, small great things by Jodi Picoult on September 27 from 2 - 4:30 p.m. in 3120 Sangren. Please join us to self-reflect and share insights. Book discussion hosted by Marcy L. Peake.
Submit Suggestions and Recommendations to the CEHD IDC

There are a few ways to submit suggestions, recommendations, concerns, and ideas to the CEHD IDC, please note these options and the Fall meeting dates below so information is shared (as requested) among the committee.

1. Inform a CEHD IDC representative in person, via telephone, or email
2. Submit a comment card at one of three box locations: Sangren (near Flossies), Kohrman (near the FCS Office), and the Student Recreation Center (second floor near reception desk).
3. Submit an online comment here: https://wmich.edu/education/diversitycommittee-comment

CEHD Fall 2019 Meeting Dates: September 3, October 1, November 5, December 3
