

Mr. Judd Herzer's passion for public service started well before getting into this career over a decade ago. After years of direct involvement inside the Lansing beltway, Judd now has insights worth sharing about his rich experiences in nearly every facet of public policy and at every level of state government and politics. Tune in to hear his thoughts about whether a career in public policy is "worth it" and a chance to ask questions about the climate and process of policy making and ways to make an impact.

Insider Perspective on Michigan Public Policy Development and Engagement

Mr. Judd Herzer

Policy Director

Michigan Department of Labor & Economic Opportunity

Judd Herzer is the Policy Director for the Michigan Department of Labor & Economic Opportunity. In this role, he is the primary policy manager for both the Office of Future Mobility and Electrification and the Michigan High-Speed Internet Office. Judd facilitates the policy work of these offices across state government, academia, and private industry to enhancing Michigan's mobility and broadband ecosystems for the benefit of state residents.

Judd formerly served as the Infrastructure and Technology Policy Advisor to Michigan Governor Gretchen Whitmer. He has also worked in both chambers of the Michigan legislature with a decade-long track record as an accomplished policy professional.

Judd holds a BA from Western Michigan University and a JD from the WMU Cooley Law School. He is an avid Manchester United fan.

October 14, 2021 from 5 to 6 p.m.

Via Webex <https://wmich.webex.com/wmich/j.php?>

MTID=m475415d2ebd6ad4d3803b2d5746199c6