

The Fort St. Joseph Archaeological Project Presents

Connections

Exploring New France

2024 Summer Archaeology Lecture Series

Lectures Begin at 6:30 pm at the Niles District Library

620 East Main, Niles, MI 49120

July 17

Archaeology of the River Raisin Settlement & War of 1812 Battlefield, Monroe, MI

John Chenoweth

Associate Professor of Anthropology,
University of Michigan - Dearborn

July 24

Documentary and Material Evidence of Women at Fort St. Joseph

Michael Nassaney

Professor Emeritus of Anthropology
Western Michigan University

This lecture series is brought to you by the Fort St. Joseph Archaeological Project, the Niles District Library, and the Niles History Center. For more information, contact Andrea Burns at 269-683-8545 ex. 116 or programming@nileslibrary.net

