Educator Beth Rondeau shares her experiences teaching in a high security prison

Knocking Down The Walls

A Virtual Presentation by Beth Rondeau-Deacon
Author / Teacher / Coach / Speaker

Tuesday March 2, 2021 @ 7:30 pm EST

Beth Deacon speaks of her upcoming book, “Seven Doors In” which walks the reader through seven steel doors and into her classroom. Learn a bit about what happens behind Door 7 and why Beth feels it is important to take risks and learn from others. Beth speaks of some of her risk taking behind Door 7 that resulted in the largest graduation class the maximum-security penitentiary has had. Believe in people, treat them with kindness, and sit back and watch what happens!
bethdeacon.com. YouTube Channel: Beth Rondeau-Deacon
Purchase the book on Amazon: https://amzn.to/3atoKuL

A guest appearance from Film Director, Terence Gordon, who has optioned Beth’s book for a feature film. He will join the presentation to discuss what he has learned as he began to explore the world of corrections. Terence speaks of his first time experience face-to-face with men serving life sentences and what he has learnt from exploring the book and the author’s life.

Director Terence Gordon on set with Neale Bayly
TERENCEGORDON.COM - IG @TNGDIR - Email Terence.Gordon@icloud.com
Youthful Ambitions YA / TNG Films LLC / Black Ink Pictures LLC

Sponsored by Western Michigan University
Mallinson Institute for Science Education and Dept. of Teaching Learning and Educational Studies.