The Department of History Presents a Public Lecture

Dr. Rob Mann
St. Cloud State University

“Labor, Leisure, and Smoking: Tobacco Pipes and French Canadian Voyageurs during the Fur Trade Era in North America”

Dr. Mann is an anthropologist and ethnohistorian whose presentation will examine the pipe smoking habits of the voyageurs. For the voyageurs, smoking “la pipe” was more than simply a leisurely practice, as pipes were key material symbols of voyageur class status and ethnic identity.

Thursday, March 28, 2019, 7pm Room 1710, Sangren Hall

Light refreshments served

Sponsored by the Departments of History, Anthropology, Geography and WMU’s Visiting Scholars and Artists Program

For more information contact: jose.brandao@wmich.edu or michael.nassaney@wmich.edu