The Fort St. Joseph Archaeological Project Presents

People of the Post

2021 Summer Archaeology Lecture Series
Online Wednesdays at 7 PM
Zoom Meeting Link: https://us02web.zoom.us/j/2491953910

July 7
Archaeology and the People of the Post
Michael S. Nassaney
Professor Emeritus of Anthropology, Western Michigan University

July 14
Men in Black: The Jesuits and their Work at Fort St. Joseph
José António Brandão
Professor of History, Western Michigan University

July 21
“He will never do in that command”:
Ensign Francis Schlosser of the 60th Regiment
Robert Myers
Director of Education, Historical Society of Michigan

July 28
A Retrospective of the Chevalier Family, Their Roles and Relationships at Fort St. Joseph: 1730-1780
Loraine DiCerbo
Editor, Habitant Heritage, French-Canadian Heritage Society

This lecture series is brought to you by the Fort St. Joseph Archaeological Project, the Niles District Library, and the Niles History Center. For more information, contact Andrea Burns at 269-683-8545 ex. 116 or andrea.burns@nileslibrary.net