Art Education Internship Course Descriptions

ED 4100 Seminar in Education (2)

The seminar will be directly related to the students' classroom experiences; it will further the students' practical understanding of research on effective teaching and effective schools, help to refine their techniques of effective classroom management and curriculum design, and enhance the students' sense of their own teaching style. The seminar will build the students' self-images as professionals as they are encouraged to take professional responsibility and to practice professional ethics. It is in the seminar that the ongoing Teaching Portfolio will be completed and reviewed by a faculty committee. Must be taken concurrently with ED 4700 or ED 4710 or ED 4750, depending on program.

ED 4710/4750 Intern Teaching (10)

Must be taken twice for total of two semesters (20 credits) of supervised internship experience. One semester will be in an elementary school placement, one semester in a secondary school placement. Taken concurrently with ED 4100.
