Bierlein Palmer, Reeves, & Poppink (2014) found, via their interviews with 55 principals within high priority schools in a Midwestern state, that one of these principals' greatest challenges was "the need to create sustained teacher leadership in their buildings." (p.6) Their research also noted that "lack of time" was a major issue (Bierlein Palmer, Reeves, and Poppink). Such knowledge helped define variables in the researcher's proposed study.
