Come connect over Disability Advocacy!

What is it?
A disability-friendly space to share personal experience with disability/difference and build self-advocacy skills
Group facilitation by a certified speech-language pathologist and associated graduate student assistants

Who?
High school students who experience disability and/or want to learn about disability rights and have access to a reliable internet connection

When & Where?
Thursdays 4:00-5:30 p.m.
Mid-September – Early December
Virtual meetings w/ optional in-person activities

How much?
$180 total / semester for weekly discussion group with a sliding scale available
Individualized sessions focused on personalized social communication are also available at an additional cost

SPACE IS LIMITED!
Contact Kelli Pierce at kelli.j.pierce@wmich.edu to reserve a spot