

THE ADVISORY COUNCIL FIELD CAMP SCHOLARSHIP

A limited amount of funds from the Department Advisory Council and the Department of Geological and Environmental Sciences is available to support student attendance at field camps this summer. Please submit a short letter explaining what camp you will be attending and what the costs are. Please include a short statement outlining your major, GPA, and career plans and objectives and submit your application by the appointed deadline to Kathy Wright at Kathryn.wright@wmich.edu. Awards will be made at the spring awards banquet each April.
