Definitions of Virtual Meetings and Remote Participation

Virtual Meetings
Meetings involving real-time interaction hosted over the Internet using integrated audio, video, and other digital tools, where participants do not share a physical location.

Remote Participation
Simultaneous participation in a meeting which is being held in a physical location by someone who is not at the same location using integrated audio, video, and other digital tools over the Internet.