FESTSCHRIFTEN, OCCASIONAL PAPERS, AND LECTURES

Festschriften, Occasional Papers, and Lectures publishes occasional volumes in honor of significant scholars of various fields of humanistic study and the premodern past, including: vernacular languages, literatures and cultures; social history and prosopography; popular beliefs and their expression; and more. This series also includes texts of significant public lectures or lecture series in the same fields.

Geographical Scope       Chronological Scope
Global                   Medieval and early modern

Further Information
To submit a proposal or completed manuscript to be considered for publication by Medieval Institute Publications or to learn more about the series, please contact Theresa Whitaker, director and acquisitions editor for this series (theresa.m.whitaker@wmich.edu).

For more information, please visit our website:
https://wmich.edu/medievalpublications/books/papers

Publishing with MIP
MIP’s series use literary, historical, and material sources and employ innovative and interdisciplinary approaches to explore what it has meant to be human through the ages. Focusing on the late antique, medieval, and early modern periods, our publications explore such topics as popular culture; the human experience; media, materiality, and otherness; literature and literary culture; art, music, and drama; and religion and spirituality.

MIP offers rapid turn-around times, the newest digital policies, and global distribution. Books are distributed worldwide through our publishing partner, De Gruyter.