STUDIES IN ICONOGRAPHY: THEMES AND VARIATIONS

Studies in Iconography: Themes and Variations is a companion series to the successful journal Studies in Iconography. Volumes focus on the visual culture of the period before 1600. Submissions are welcomed for monographs or tightly conceived essay collections that take a cross-disciplinary or interdisciplinary approach to their subjects or that examine theories and methods of iconographic analysis and histories of representation from a critical perspective.

Geographical Scope
Global

Chronological Scope
Late antique to c. 1600

Keywords: art history, iconography, visual culture, medieval, late antique

Further Information
Proposals or completed manuscripts to be considered for publication by Medieval Institute Publications should be sent to the Acquisitions Editor, Theresa Whitaker (theresa.m.whitaker@wmich.edu). To learn more about the series, contact the Acquisitions Editor or visit our website: wmich.edu/medievalpublications/books/themes

Publishing with MIP
MIP’s series use literary, historical, and material sources and employ innovative and interdisciplinary approaches to explore what it has meant to be human through the ages. Focusing on the late antique, medieval, and early modern periods, our publications explore such topics as popular culture; the human experience; media, materiality, and otherness; literature and literary culture; art, music, and drama; and religion and spirituality.

MIP offers rapid turn-around times, the newest digital policies, and global distribution. Books are distributed worldwide through our publishing partner, De Gruyter.

NEW AND FORTHCOMING BOOKS IN THE SERIES

Lena Eva Liepe, ed., The Locus of Meaning in Medieval Art (2019)

Kristin Collins and Matthew Fisher, St. Albans and the Markyate Psalter (2017)

SERIES EDITORS

DILIANA ANGELOVA
University of California, Berkeley

PAMELA PATTON
Princeton University

STUDIES IN ICONOGRAPHY JOURNAL

Studies in Iconography is an annual journal hosted by the Index of Medieval Art and published in partnership with Medieval Institute Publications. It presents innovative work on the meaning of images from the medieval world broadly construed, between the fourth century to the year 1600. Learn more at https://scholarworks.wmich.edu/studies_in_iconography/