TEAMS FRENCH OF MEDIEVAL ENGLAND
BILINGUAL EDITIONS

Medieval Institute Publications publishes the Commentary Series in partnership with the Teaching Association for Medieval Studies (TEAMS). TEAMS was originally founded as a committee of the Medieval Academy of America to develop new ways to support the teaching activities of its members. It was later reorganized as an independent nonprofit educational corporation whose mission continues to be the support of teaching in medieval studies at the undergraduate, secondary and elementary school level through the provision of resources and the sharing of techniques.

Proposals Welcome
The French of Medieval England Bilingual Editions Series is designed to encourage the editing and translation of significant Anglo-French texts. The volumes are designed for classroom use in courses in Medieval English, Medieval French and Anglo-Norman, and Comparative Medieval Studies, and they will also be valuable to advanced scholars in related fields. In most cases, books will feature edited texts and facing-page modern English translations. Our particular interest is in neglected works and authors, including previously inedited or hard-to-access texts.

Further Information
Proposals or completed manuscripts to be considered for publication should be sent to Tyler Cloherty (tylercloherty44@gmail.com), acquisitions editor for the series, or to the series editor, David Raybin (draybin@eiu.edu), Professor Emeritus, Eastern Illinois University.

Publishing with MIP
MIP’s series use literary, historical, and material sources and employ innovative and interdisciplinary approaches to explore what it has meant to be human through the ages. Focusing on the late antique, medieval, and early modern periods, our publications explore such topics as popular culture; the human experience; media, materiality, and otherness; literature and literary culture; art, music, and drama; and religion and spirituality.

MIP offers rapid turn-around times, the newest digital policies, and global distribution. TEAMS books can be purchased through our distributor, ISD (isdistribution.com).
