Two Detroit Cultural Gems / Friday, Oct. 12

A day of remembrance, learning and fun is what awaits you as we journey to the Detroit area. Our first stop is the frequently requested Holocaust Memorial Center in Farmington Hills. During our guided tour we will explore this historic period and chapter in Jewish history. Lunch (included) follows at the iconic and much-loved Buddy's Pizzeria, established in 1946.

The afternoon finds us at the Detroit Institute of Arts, a massive Beaux Arts building first opened in 1927. This museum is the "crown jewel" of Detroit and the best art museum in the state. It holds one of the most significant collections in the country and is listed as # 1 of the 155 attractions in Detroit on Trip Advisor. There we will divide into smaller groups for a docent-led highlight tour. There will be time to explore on your own, revisit the Diego Rivera murals in the center courtyard or purchase that special item at the unique gift shop after the tour.

Both fantastic museums have earned the celebrated and much sought-after AAA editor's picks of a "Gem" for their exceptional interest. To finalize our Detroit experience, we dine at Detroit's Union Street Restaurant (included). Called energetic and fun by those who visit, it has been a community social hub in Midtown Detroit since the 1930s. This will be one fun and memorable day trip you won't want to miss. Finalize your fall plans soon and register now.
