

Medieval Prosopography 26 (2005)

CONTENTS

Articles

Queen Theuchildis of Sens

Constance B. Bouchard

1

Hoc and Hnaef in Bavaria? Early-Medieval Prosopography and Heroic Poetry

Carl I. Hammer

13

A Proposed Genealogy for Marbode, Angevin Bishop of Rennes, 1096–1123

Melissa B. Lurio

51

Mothers and Daughters as Lords: The Countesses of Blois and Chartres

Michelle Armstrong-Partida

77

John Cumin: The Schismatic of Bath Becomes the Archbishop of Dublin

Diana Jarvis Godwin

108

The London Craft of Joiners, 1200–1550

Jessica Lutkin

129

The Pereiras in Portuguese Medieval Sources

Fátima Regina Fernandes

165

The Pope's Loyal Franciscans:
Fifteen French Bishops in the Early Fourteenth Century

Dale R. Streeter

183

Chantry Chaplains at St. Paul's Cathedral, London ca. 1200–1548

Marie-Hélène Rousseau

197

Webs of Significance: Some Reflections on Thomas Stonor II's Social Networks

Elizabeth Noble

315

Exploring the Possibilities of the Prosopographical Method:
The Noble Population of the Late Medieval County of Zeeland

Arie van Steensel

334

Reviews

Dominer la ville. Prévôts des marchands et échevins parisiens de 1260 à 1350

by Boris Bove

Bettina Bommersbach

352

“Tu felix Austria, nube.” La dynastie de Habsbourg et sa politique matrimoniale à la fin du Moyen Âge (XIIIe–XVIe siècles)

by Cyrille Debris

Élisabeth Mornet

355

Note to Contributors

360