“Politics of Denial: Germany’s International Responsibility and the Silencing of Mass Atrocities”
Bernhard Stahl, Professor, International Politics, University of Passau
3:30 p.m. Sept. 4, Brown & Gold Room, Bernhard Center

“If the United States Promised Health Care as a ‘Right,’ What Would We REALLY Have to Deliver?”
Jason Marker, M.D., Memorial Hospital (South Bend, IN)
5:00 p.m. Sept. 20, WMed Auditorium, 300 Portage Street

“Race and the Politics of Loss: Revisiting the Legacy of Emmett Till”
Ashley Atkins, Assistant Professor, Philosophy, WMU
3:30 p.m. Oct. 4, 2008 Richmond Center for Visual Arts

“The Saudi Crisis in the Contemporary Middle East”
Juan Cole, Professor, History, University of Michigan
6:45 p.m. Oct. 10, Kirsch Auditorium, Fetzer Center

“The Right(s) Question: Can and Should Robots Have Rights?”
David J. Gunkel, Distinguished Teaching Professor, Communication, Northern Illinois University
6 p.m. Oct. 23, Brown & Gold Room, Bernhard Center

“Populism, Social Media and Democratic Participation”
Anna Popkova, Assistant Professor, Communication, WMU
Taylor Koopman, Graduate Student, Communication, WMU
6 p.m. Nov. 6, Brown & Gold Room, Bernhard Center

“Justifying the Beneficiary Pays Principle”
Saba Bazargan-Forward, Philosophy, University of California - SD
5 p.m. Nov. 22, 157 Bernhard Center