

Join our Zoom call on Wednesday, November 11 at 7:00 PM for a film discussion event focused on the theme "In their own words: Refugee Resettlement". Collaborating with JFON as co-hosts for the evening's discussion are Dr. Maria Roche-Dean from WMU Bronson School of Nursing and Shukurani Nsengiyumva from the Board of the Kalamazoo Refugee Resource Collaborative.

On November 11, we will watch two short films together during our Zoom call with a director from Community Supported Films and one of the film's main subjects! These short stories are part of Community Supported Films and their New Immigrant and Refugee Visions project. These refugee-produced stories provide a unique insider perspective on the integration challenges faced by immigrants and the contributions they make to our culture, economy, and social fabric. You are encouraged to watch the entire series of short films in advance.

Please first register for our November film discussion at the following Zoom link:

https://zoom.us/meeting/register/tJ0kd-ChrzgiH9IJqpkhX_HpMjxy7IMDcvh7

After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the meeting.

The full series of short films is available to view here for free: <http://csfilm.org/films/new-immigrant-and-refugee-visions/>

If you have access to Netflix, prior to our discussion, please also view "Immigration Nation, Episode 5: The Right Way"

Questions? Please contact Justice for Our Neighbors -- Kalamazoo at 269-743-2501

UNDOCUMENTED MIGRATION
PROJECT