Isabel López Slattery

“How Spanish Unlocks a World of Adventure”

A PRESENTATION BY A HIGHLY ACCOMPLISHED ALUMNA

Isabel López Slattery studied Spanish and Media Communications at WMU between 2006 and 2011. She went on to found her own photography company and is now a successful media entrepreneur. Isabel owns and runs her photography and video production company, Isabel Media Studios, servicing the greater Grand Rapids area. Among her clients are the City of Grand Rapids, GVSU, GRCC, Ferris State University, Steelcase, and WK Kellogg Foundation, to name a few. Her work has been published in several venues, such as Vive Michigan and Women’s Lifestyle. Come and learn what a degree in Spanish can do for you!

Friday, Feb. 3
12 p.m.
Brown Hall
2028

DEPARTMENT OF SPANISH
www.wmich.edu/spanish
pablo.pastrana@wmich.edu
269-387-3023