GLOBAL CLASSROOM COLLABORATIVE Chair Support Form

The faculty member named below is applying for the Global Classroom Collaborative.

What is the Global Classrooms Collaborative?

Faculty will work with a facilitator over the course of the spring semester with five modules and bi-weekly check-ins. They can expect to spend 2-3 hours per module and about 1 hour every two weeks for check-in meetings. During these sessions they will undertake a review of their current course and design a unit intended to provide international collaborative learning for their students. Faculty will have the opportunity to network with potential international partners with the intention that the global classroom will be implemented Summer or Fall 2024 or Spring 2025.

This opportunity is aimed at faculty

- without significant previous international experience in the area of teaching;
- who are interested in providing their students with more international engagement;
- who are interested in working collaboratively with faculty colleagues abroad;
- and are not sure where to start.

Funding is made available through Article 40.4 of the WMU-AAUP Contract. The grant is open to faculty holding board-appointed faculty rank who are members of the bargaining unit at the time the application is due. The Collaborative is designed for undergraduate courses. Preference will be given to WES courses and those taught more frequently.
