

Emergency Preparedness Quiz

Revised 4/2013

Please complete the quiz and submit answers to the orientation coordinator via email,
Or hard copy

1. (Fill in the blank) If you observe violence in the workplace, such as a shooter on campus, you should immediately call _____, and report _____.
2. (True or False) In the case of a bomb threat, if you are prompted to evacuate you should meet at the designated area and check that all people are accounted for.
3. (Short answer) Incidents are usually classified as _____.
4. (True or False) An incident must be verbally reported if observed or even suspected.
5. Give three examples of incidents:
6. (Multiple choice) R-A-C-E stands for:
 - a. Run and chase everyone
 - b. Rescue, Activate, Contain, Evacuate
 - c. Really awesome clinical exam
 - d. Rescue, Alarm, Contain, Escape
7. (Short Answer) In the event of an evacuation situation, if you have a client with limited mobility, you should go _____.
8. (Fill in the blank) If a client goes missing, you should call 911 within _____ minutes.
9. (Short Answer) The greatest difference between a tornado watch and a tornado warning is _____.
10. (Fill in the blank) In the event of a fire (drill or real), you should evacuate to _____.
11. (Fill in the blank) In the event of a tornado (drill or real), you should seek shelter in _____.