

WMU DEPARTMENT OF GEOSCIENCES ADVISORY COUNCIL EXPERTISE FORM

Name: Diana Morton-Thompson, C.P.G., P.G.

Location (city/state/country): P.O. Box 20245, Kalamazoo, Michigan, USA

Phone: 269-343-1181

E-mail: diana@earth-resources.com

Current employer and/or occupation status: Earth Resources International, L.C.
Principal / Registered Professional Geologist

Website (if available): www.earth-resource.com

Employment summary (title/company/location):

- Environmental Consulting: Wilkens & Wheaton; Aqua-Terra
- Oil & Gas: Amoco; Chevron USA; Arco Research and Technical Service
- Sedimentary Minerals: Chevron Resources
- Government: Texas Bureau of Economic Geology [State Geologic Survey equivalent]

Education & certification (degree/institution or certification name):

- Professional Geologist/Geoscientist: Wyoming; Texas
- Certified Professional Geologist: American Institute of Prof. Geologists; Alaska
- M.A. Geology, The University of Texas at Austin, Austin, TX
- B.Sc. Geology with HONORS, James Madison University, Harrisonburg, VA

Areas of professional expertise/experience/interest:

- Depositional Systems and Processes
- Subsurface Evaluations (reservoirs and aquifers)
- Natural Resources Evaluation and Management
- Sustainable Development
- Educational Outreach and Professional Training

Are you willing to offer career counseling/mentoring to students in the Department of Geosciences at WMU? Yes

Are you willing to accept internship applications from students in the Department of Geosciences at WMU? No

Are you willing to help students in the Department of Geosciences at WMU find employment? Yes

Are you willing to accept applications from WMU Geosciences graduates for employment with your firm? No