HISP 1240
Indigenous Languages and Cultures in the Americas

New WMU Essential Studies Course
Level 1 – Foundations, Inquiry and Engagement
3 credits

This course is an overview of languages, stories and cultural practices of Indigenous peoples in the Americas. Some things we will learn are:

- Myths, trickster stories, and cosmology
- The role of indigenous culture in contemporary society, culture and identity
- Linguistic families and languages in the Americas
- Some fascinating particularities of language families and languages native to the Americas
- The role of language revitalization in preserving Indigenous peoples identity

Questions?
Email Dr. Mercededes Tubino-Blanco mercedes.tubino-blanco@wmich.edu

TR 12:30-1:45
3010 Brown Hall