

Physics is top-paid major in math and sciences in 2016

Physics majors are the top-paid of the math and sciences bachelor's degree earners, according to results of National Association of College and Employers Salary Survey in 2016.

Physics majors earn an average starting salary of $65,250.

To learn about majoring in physics at WMU, check us out online or call the Physics Department office to make an appointment with the undergraduate advisor (269) 387-4940.

Source: Winter 2016 Salary Survey, National Association of Colleges and Employers

(Thousands) - 30 40 50 60 70 80 90 100

■ lower quartile ■ upper quartile * median